ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS

On July 15, 2016, Collectar Biosciences, Inc. (the "Company") appointed Jarrod Longcor as Senior Vice President of Corporate Development and Operations.

Mr. Longcor, 43, brings more than 20 years of pharmaceutical and biotech experience to Collectar. Prior to joining the Company, he served as chief business officer for Avillion LLP from July 2014 through July 2016, where he was responsible for executing the company's unique co-development partnership strategy. Since September 2013, Mr. Longcor has been the president of SBC Consulting, a corporate development consulting firm focused on developing strategic plans, raising capital, identifying, leading and closing partnership negotiations, market assessments, managing due diligence and managing operations in the biotech industry. From June 2007 through September 2013, he was Vice President of Corporate Development for Rib-X Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (now Melinta Therapeutics) where he was responsible for identifying and concluding several critical collaborations for that company. Prior thereto, Mr. Longcor held key positions in several small to midsized biotech companies where he was responsible for business development, strategic planning and operations. Mr. Longcor holds a B.S. from Dickinson College, an M.S. from Boston University School of Medicine and an M.B.A. from Saint Joseph's University's Haub School of Business.

Mr. Longcor will receive a base salary of $285,000 per year, is eligible to receive a targeted annual bonus of 30 percent of base salary, and was granted, as an inducement award, an option to purchase 75,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $2.93 per share, vesting quarterly over three years. In the event of a dismissal without cause or upon a constructive dismissal following a change in control, Mr. Longcor will be entitled to six months of severance.

ITEM 7.01 REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On July 20, 2016, we issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Longcor. The press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference in this Item.

Collectar Biosciences Appoints Jarrod Longcor Senior Vice President of Corporate Development and Operations

MADISON, Wis., July 20, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Collectar Biosciences, Inc. (Nasdaq: CLRB) ("the company"), an oncology-focused biotechnology company, today announces the appointment of Jarrod Longcor as senior vice president of corporate development and operations, effective July 15, 2016.

"Jarrod is an industry veteran who has spent considerable time creating collaborations between companies, which have resulted in successful outcomes for both parties," said Jim Caruso, president and CEO of Collectar Biosciences. "We anticipate his expertise will easily align with our current corporate priorities, including identifying potential partners to develop new oncology drugs using our PDC platform delivery vehicle. We welcome Jarrod to Collectar and look forward to our mutual success."

Mr. Longcor brings more than 20 years of pharmaceutical and biotech experience to Collectar, and during that time was either responsible for or participated in more than 40 collaborations. Prior to joining the company, he served as chief business officer for Avillion LLP, where he was responsible for executing the company's unique co-development partnership strategy. Prior to Avillion, he was vice president of corporate development for Rib-X Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (now Melinta Therapeutics) where he was responsible for identifying and concluding several critical collaborations for the company, including a discovery collaboration with Sanofi Aventis valued over $700M. Prior to Rib-X, Mr. Longcor held key positions in several small to midsized biotech companies where he was responsible for business development, strategic planning and operations.

Jarrod holds a B.S. from Dickinson College, a M.S. from Boston University School of Medicine and an M.B.A. from Saint Joseph's University's Haub School of Business.

Grant of Inducement Option

Collectar has granted to Mr. Longcor, effective as of his first day of employment with Collectar, an option to purchase 75,000 shares of Collectar's common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the closing price of Collectar's common stock on the grant date as reported by Nasdaq. This grant was approved by both the Compensation Committee of Collectar's Board of Directors and the full Board of Directors and made as an inducement material to Mr. Longcor entering into employment with Collectar as contemplated by Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(c)(4).

The stock option, which has a 10-year term, vests and becomes exercisable in twelve equal quarterly increments beginning three months from the date of Mr. Longcor's first day of employment.

Collectar provides this information in accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(c)(4).

About Collectar Biosciences, Inc.

Collectar Biosciences is developing phospholipid drug conjugates (PDCs) designed to provide cancer targeted delivery of diverse oncologic payloads to a broad range of cancers and cancer stem cells. Collectar's PDC Delivery Platform is based on the company's proprietary phospholipid ether analogs. These novel small-molecules have demonstrated highly selective uptake and retention in a broad range of cancers. Collectar's PDC pipeline includes product candidates for cancer therapy and cancer diagnostic imaging. The company's lead therapeutic PDC, CLR 131, utilizes iodine-131, a cytotoxic radioisotope, as its payload. CLR 131 is currently being evaluated under an orphan drug designated Phase 1 study in patients with relapsed or refractory multiple myeloma. The company is actively developing PDCs for targeted delivery of chemotherapeutics such as paclitaxel (CLR 1602-PTX), a preclinical stage product candidate, and plans to expand its PDC chemotherapeutic pipeline through both in-house and collaborative R&D efforts.
